

5) Your foster child, age 8, asks for a new toy, while you are out with him at the store. You say, "no," and he starts screaming at the top of his lungs, "I want the toy NOW!" Everyone within earshot is looking at you. What might you do?

---

---

---

6) You tell your foster child it's time to turn off the TV and do homework before dinner, and he says, "I don't have to do anything you say; you aren't my parent." What might you do?

---

---

---

7) Twenty dollars is missing from your wallet. What might you do?

---

---

---

8) You find a pile of rotten apples and stale bread in your foster child's closet. What might you do?

---

---

---

9) As you are cleaning, you came across condoms in your foster son's bedroom. How would you respond?

---

---

---

10) You have two foster children who are arguing about which TV show to watch. They start to yell, throw things, and hit each other. How would you respond?

---

---

---